

Estimated proportion of Queensland households with a good understanding of the types and chances of natural disasters occurring in Queensland, by Region

Estimated proportion of Queensland households with a good understanding of how a natural disaster might impact on their local area, by Region

Estimated proportion of Queensland households that would have enough food if cut off from services for three days, by Region

Estimated proportion of Queensland households that would have enough drinking water if cut off from services for three days, by Region

Estimated proportion of Queensland households that would have adequate supplies of regularly taken medications if cut off from services for three days, by Region

Estimated proportion of Queensland households that would have a torch and fresh batteries if cut off from services for three days, by Region

Estimated proportion of Queensland households that would have a first aid kit if cut off from services for three days, by Region

Estimated proportion of Queensland households that would have a battery-powered radio if cut off from services for three days, by Region

Estimated proportion of Queensland households with a pet that would have adequate food and medications for pets if cut off from services for three days, by Region

Estimated proportion of Queensland households that have items such as food, drinking water, first-aid kit etc. stored as an emergency kit, by Region

Estimated proportion of Queensland households that have compiled a hard copy list of emergency contact numbers, by Region

Estimated proportion of Queensland households where at least one household member has a current first aid certificate, by Region

Estimated proportion of Queensland households with a cat or dog that have made arrangements for household pets should their home be evacuated, by Region

Estimated proportion of Queensland households that have decided what to do if home was at risk from storms, cyclones, flooding or fire, by Region

Estimated proportion of Queensland households not living in caravans that have identified strongest room in home, by Region

Estimated proportion of Queensland households that have arranged for members of the household to stay with a family member or friend if evacuation required, by Region

Estimated proportion of Queensland households with a documented household emergency plan, by Region

Estimated proportion of Queensland households that remove or tie down items in outdoor areas to protect against cyclones and/or storms, by Region

Estimated proportion of Queensland households that clean out gutters, drains and flood channels to protect against cyclones and/or storms, by Region

Estimated proportion of Queensland households that trim trees away from home and power lines to protect against cyclones and/or storms, by Region

Estimated proportion of Queensland households that check roof for damage or weakness to protect against cyclones and/or storms, by Region

Estimated proportion of Queensland households that are now implementing preparedness actions which were not implemented 12 months ago, by Region

Estimated proportion of Queensland households with a current contents policy covering replacement costs for their household goods, by Region

Estimated proportion of Queensland households with a current building insurance policy covering the structure of their home, by Region

Estimated proportion of Queensland households who assessed their natural disaster preparedness as 'Very Prepared' or 'Prepared', by Region

