

Support for people in Queensland under 65 years of age

There are Schemes available to help people manage better at home and enjoy improved quality of life and independence. The following information includes links to key search words and useful websites.

Queensland Community Support Scheme (QCSS)

The Queensland Community Support Scheme (QCSS) can help people to continue living safely in their home and actively take part in the community.

Eligibility

You may be eligible for the QCSS if you are under 65 years old, or under 50 years old for Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander people with:

- A disability and are not eligible for the National Disability Insurance Scheme
- Chronic illness, mental health or other condition, or
- Other circumstances that affect your ability to live independently in the community
