

Julian's Key Health Passport

Bedside Poster Example

Display on a wall near the patient for easy access to their specific care needs.
Fill out digitally, print to complete by hand or laminate for whiteboard marker use.

Queensland Health

Hello, I like to be called:

e.g., Alan Smith

 My pronouns:	 My community:
e.g., He/him, She/her, They/them etc.	e.g., my country of birth, cultural heritage or community I identify with.
 How I communicate:	 Things that calm me:
e.g., body language, AAC and text-to-voice.	e.g., having my mum with me, speaking softly and music.
 Things I like:	 Things I don't like:
e.g., golf, gardening and watching TV.	e.g., loud voices and bright lights.
 People who are important to me:	 People who support my wellbeing:
e.g., Mum, Dad, Sister, Friend, Partner or Carer.	e.g., my GP, specialist, and support coordinator.

5C2401035.19/11/24

Julian's Key
Health Passport

 Queensland Government

Hello, I like to be called:

My pronouns:

My community:

How I communicate:

Things that calm me:

Things I like:

Things I don't like:

People who are important to me:

People who support my wellbeing: