Imagery: SISP 2023

Legend

Odour notifications Autumn 2024

- Sparse
- Dense
- Swanbank and New Chum industrial areas

Mapping is indicative for the purposes of showing: a) the relative density of notifications, proportionate to the total number of notifications received during the period; and b) notifications outside of industrial locations at Swanbank and New Chum; c) data that is derived from public notifications, and as such, its accuracy cannot be guaranteed. The maps should be used as a general guide rather than a definitive source.
